Uni heart campaign strikes gold

VANDALS SMASH 'LIFE–SAVER'!

By Danielle Thompson

Town–centre defibrillator destroyed in mindless attack

VANDALS have destroyed equipment designed to save the lives of people suffering from a heart attack.

The wall–mounted defibrillator outside the West Lancashire Borough Council office in Derby Street, Ormskirk was vandalised before being dumped in a car park.

The Community Publically Accessible Defibrillator, which costs £1,400, is a lightweight, portable device that delivers an electric shock through the chest to the heart designed to halt an irregular rhythm and allow a normal rhythm to resume following sudden cardiac arrest.

If not treated within minutes sudden cardiac arrest – an abrupt loss of heart function – can quickly lead to death.

The device was placed at the town–centre site by the North West Ambulance Service (NWAS) in 2012 after a campaign by former mayoress Sue Murrin–Bailey prompted fundraising efforts throughout West Lancashire resulted in 20 devices across the borough.

To access the defibrillator, members of the public ring the emergency services to ask for a code to free the device from its protective cabinet.

However, the vandals broke the cabinet to get to the device which was so badly damaged that it could not be repaired and had to be replaced.

A new device has been ordered and is expected to be installed within the next month.

Sue Murrin–Bailey said: "Since donating this equipment, volunteers continue to fundraise and provide basic life–support training. The Lancashire Defibrillator Campaign is working very closely with NWAS and we are totally disgusted that vandals would abuse this life–saving equipment."

Cheryl Pickstock from NWAS said: "It's very sad to hear this community defibrillator has been vandalised. If someone suffers a cardiac arrest the sooner a defibrillator can be used the greater chance they have of surviving.

"Even a couple of minutes' delay can severely impact upon the rate of survival and, ultimately, could be fatal. It's extremely disappointing that this vital piece of equipment has been destroyed."

And West Lancs Council leader, Councillor David Westley, added: "We are very disappointed that people's lives could be put at risk because of this mindless vandalism."

• ANYONE with information about the vandalism of the defibrillator is asked to contact Lancashire Police on 101.

Campaign group to stage 'Save Our NHS' protest in town

LOCAL members of a national protest group will be out in force in Ormskirk on Saturday (February 28) to stage a 'Save our NHS' protest.

The day of action, co–ordinated by campaign group 38 Degrees, will be held at the Clock Tower in the town centre Ormskirk from 11am.

The protesters will join an expected 9,000–plus members of 38 Degrees groups throughout the country, including neighbouring Southport and Formby, staging similar protests on the day.

Priceless

Nearly 600 people in the area have already signed a petition directed to all of the candidates standing to for MP in West Lancashire in May's General Election.

Each of the candidates is asked to commit to protect the NHS from privatisation, make sure it has the funding it needs, and keep the NHS out of the TTIP trade deal with the US.

Iain Bell, a 38 Degrees member from West Lancashire, said: "Our NHS is priceless, above politics and belongs to all of us. Our NHS needs to be saved from our politicians, yet can only be saved BY our politicians.

"This is why I will be out on the street in Ormskirk on Saturday to ask people to sign the petition to save our NHS. The petition is to be delivered to all the parliamentary candidates so I hope they will all come along on the day to show their support for the NHS and to listen to the people who will vote for them."

David Babbs, executive director of 38 Degrees, said: "People in West Lancashire will be standing with thousands of people across the country to say that we love our NHS too much to let it be sold off to the highest bidder."

Mere's milestone

ONE of West Lancashire's most popular attractions is celebrating a special milestone this weekend.

The reserve near Burscough first opened its doors to the general public on March 1, 1975, welcoming 500 visitors at a cost of just 40p for an adult!

Since then more than 5.5m people have visited the site, as well as 300,000–plus school educational visits.

Champ's ditch the Pacers campaign gathers speed

THE Champion has launched a campaign to rid our railways of outdated Pacer trains.

And it's got the backing of both West Lancs MP Rosie Cooper and Southport MP John Pugh.

A growing number of passengers on both the Ormskirk to Preston and Southport to Manchester lines are angry and frustrated at the continued use of the much–maligned trains derisively referred to as 'boneshakers.'

The government had announced in their Autumn Statement in November that the Pacers were to be replaced by 'new and modern trains' but fears are growing that they will continue to be in use on routes in the region for the foreseeable future.

And rather than having new trains on the local routes it is being proposed to use converted former London Underground carriages.

Just recently, Vivarail Ltd, a company formed in 2012 to produce a new type of rolling stock designed specifically for local rail services, announced they are converting former London Underground D78 rolling stock into D–trains, with the body shells turned into lightweight diesel–electric passenger trains which would be ready for use by the end of this year.

And bidders for the Northern franchises which are going through their renewal process – including current operators Northern Rail – are expected to put forward plans to replace some, but not all, of the Pacers with the converted stock.

That means the hated Pacers could still be used on routes serving passengers in Sefton and West Lancashire.

Now the Champ has joined angry passengers in calling for them to be sidelined for good.

Southport MP John Pugh, who has long been vociferous in campaigning for better rail services, said: "The Champion throwing its weight behind the campaign to get rid of the Pacers is fantastic news.

"The Southport Rail Transport Forum are already e–mailing MPs in the areas effected, talking to potential new operators, ministers and rolling stock companies – as well as engaging local businesses.

"But nothing can bring all that pressure together like a local campaigning newspaper."

West Lancs MP Rosie Cooper said: "I'm delighted to support the Champion in campaigning to rid our rail services of the outdated Pacer trains. Our commuters deserve a better deal when it comes to local rail services.

"The refurbishment of the London Underground stock will see 30–year–old trains replaced with 40–year–old trains. That, to me, is not new and it's not modern.

"There is not enough stock either to completely get rid of the Pacer trains. Now we find out as well that companies bidding to operate the Northern rail services will not be required to deliver modern and better quality trains.

"West Lancashire commuters are being hit with massive hikes in rail fares but see no investment to improve the quality and comfort of the trains they use. Billions of pounds are being ploughed into high–speed inter–city services yet commuters on local services are being treated like second–class citizens. That's why I'm backing the Champion's campaign."

The Southport Rail Transport Forum was set up with the support of MP John Pugh to fight for better trains and more efficient connections between Southport and Lancashire.

It campaigns for the electrification of the Southport to Wigan rail line, retention of Southport's direct connection to Manchester Piccadilly and Airport stations, restoration of Southport's rail link to Preston via Burscough and the withdrawal of the Pacers.

Pacers – trains built out of bus parts!

PACER is the operational name of the British Rail Classes 140, 141, 142, 143 and 144 diesel multiple unit railbuses, built between 1980 and 1987 and which were intended as a short–term solution to a shortage of rolling stock with a lifespan of no more than 20 years.

The 'Pacer' series was a project by British Rail to create a train, with low running costs, for use on rural and suburban rail services. BR set a challenge to several companies to design a cheap, lightweight train similar to railbuses. Since then, 165 Pacer trains (totalling 340 carriages) have been built, with some more than 30 years old by 2015.

The train was the result of an experiment to see whether the possibility of using bus parts to create a diesel multiple unit was viable.

The largest Pacer class was the Class 142 built by Leyland and BREL, in 1985. The body was based on a Leyland National bus, built at Lillyhall, Workington in Cumbria. Many fixtures and fittings of the Leyland National could be found on the units.

A number of units were modified for use on the Merseyside PTE City Line on Merseyrail in the Liverpool region and moved into the control of First North Western at privatisation and subsequently passed on to Northern Rail.

Students' Seven by Seven fundraising walk for homeless

Lydia recruits pals for village–to–village challenge

By Danielle Thompson

SEVEN West Lancashire students are aiming to do a sponsored walk taking in seven villages in the borough to raise money for a charity for the homeless.

The Seven by Seven walk was the idea of 19–year–old Lydia Tomlinson who was affected by the sight of the homeless people on the streets of Liverpool city centre as she made her way to lectures.

A first year English student at Liverpool University, Lydia recruited six of her former schools pals – Lisa Quickfall, Georgia Roberts, Emogene Baxendale, Lucy Taylor, Isabel Kingsford and Lyndsey Smart – to join her in the walk on Easter Monday, April 6.

Setting out from Newburgh the girls, all originally from Hilldale and studying at various universities throughout the country, will walk to Parbold, Hilldale, Mawdesley, Eccleston, Bretherton and finally Croston and aim to complete the approximately 15–mile course in around six hours.

They are hoping to raise at least £1,000 for The Whitechapel Centre, a homeless and housing charity in Liverpool which works with people sleeping rough, living in hostels or struggling to manage their accommodation and helps them find a home and learn the life skills essential for independent living.

RARING to go... student Lydia Tomlinson who has recruited six of her pals for a fundraising walk to support The Whitechapel Centre charity for the homeless.
Code1077915

Lydia said: "I am frequently seeing people sleeping rough, begging for change or selling The Big Issue on my walk up to the university and every day I am saddened and shocked that this is still continuing in today's society.

"I understand that I can't change the politics behind this but I thought that I could make a small difference by organising a sponsored event to raise money.

"Hopefully it will be something really positive and we are hoping to raise at least £1,000 towards the fantastic work that the charity does.

"We understand that this will be difficult but we felt we needed to set ourselves a challenge in order for people to sponsor us.

Drink–driver faced 'balancing act', court told

By Court Reporter

A MAN charged with drink–driving was faced with a "balancing act" when his partner was unable to get home to her children, his solicitor told the court.

Andrew Roberts, 25, of Oak Green, Ormskirk, pleaded guilty to driving with 54 micrograms of alcohol in 100ml of breath (the legal limit is 35mcg/100nl) when he appeared at Sefton Magistrates Court on Wednesday, February 18.

The court heard that Roberts' Fiat Punto was stopped by police at 2.55am on January 10 in Netherton where he was said to have been driving erratically from one side of the road to the other. He also appeared unsteady on his feet when he got out of the car.

Solicitor Neil Davies said that Roberts had been in the act of parking when he appeared to be driving erratically from side to side and contested that he was unsteady on his feet.

But he added: "He accepts that he has done wrong in driving in excess of the alcohol limit. He is a very honest individual and was honest before even taking the breath test."

His partner had been in Ormskirk, he said, on an evening when he was playing darts in Ormskirk himself, having left his car at his mother's.

At the end of the evening his partner had lost all her money, he said, and so could not get back to Netherton for her children.

"There was no necessity for him to drive but he found himself in a balancing act. He knew he'd had a drink but did not think he was over the limit and he had a partner who had no money to get home.

"He accepts that he misjudged that balancing act", said Mr Davies, adding that he was not, however, making excuses for his behaviour.

Banning Roberts – who has no previous convictions – from driving for the mandatory minimum of 12 months, the magistrates gave him the opportunity to take the drink–drive awareness course to reduce the ban by three months.

They also fined him £100 and ordered that he pay £105 in costs and victim surcharge.

Ormskirk Bowling Club

LAST week's article about new bowling greens to be created at Ormskirk Cricket Club in Altys Lane stated that Ormskirk Bowling Club consists mainly of bowlers from the former Comrades Club. Ian Gill, secretary of Ormskirk Bowling Club, has asked us to point out that this is not so, although the club does have some former bowlers from the Comrades and others are more than welcome to join.

Rosie Cooper invited to judge university's media challenge

ROSIE Cooper will be drawing on her pre–parliamentatry experience when she visits Edge Hill tomorrow (Thursday, February 26).

The West Lancs MP, who formerly worked in public relations, has been invited to the Ormskirk university to judge a student 'media challenge.'

The competition is a university initiative, run in conjunction with the media department's 'Make Yourself Employable Week.'

It challenges the students to develop a complete media and marketing campaign for the Community–I website run by local charity West Lancs Council for Voluntary Service (CVS) which provides advice, training and volunteering opportunities for the local community.

As well as presenting the winning candidate with a prize, the West Lancs MP will offer her advice on how to take the project further.

Ms Cooper said: "Events such as 'Make Yourself Employable' week are very important at a time of huge competition for jobs among young people and graduates. The practical skills gained during the week easily transfer to the workplace and give added value to degree studies.

"This is yet another way University of the Year, Edge Hill, strives to help its students get ahead in the jobs market and to do it in a way that helps the local community – especially the voluntary sector – is brilliant.

"Having spent many years working in public relations for Littlewoods, it will be great to see the different campaigns and presentations, and I look to draw on my own PR experience when judging the competition."

Charity shop volunteers wanted

THE Salvation Army charity shop in Aughton Street, Ormskirk is seeking volunteers.

The shop sells everything from clothes and accessories to books and household items with proceeds helping to fund the organisation's valuable work with people who are vulnerable and in need.

Area manager, Ann Penny, said: "We rely on the generosity of our volunteers because they play such a vital role within our charity shops. There are all sorts of jobs that we need help with and we provide all the training you need."

To volunteer call the shop on 01695 575698.

Care home aims to bridge generation gap

Report by Danielle Thompson

STAFF at a care home are launching an initiative to encourage older residents in West Lancashire to spend more quality time with younger people in the wider community.

Last year, staff at the Hillcroft residential and care home in Aughton spearheaded a campaign to make older people in the local community feel more involved by inviting them to join residents at free activities and events held at the home and day trips out.

Now manager of the Long Lane home, Margaret Sutcliffe is supporting a project called Connecting Generations aimed at bringing different age groups together.

Margaret was presented with a Community Involvement Award by West Lancashire Older People's Champion, Councillor May Blake, at the Skelmersdale Library Memory Festival in recognition of the work that she and staff at the home have done on behalf of older people in the community, including the campaign to encourage care homes across the borough to invite local residents to join them for Christmas dinner.

That campaign was take up by Connect 4 Life, a community project between Lancashire County Council and six local and national older people's charities, resulting in 16 care homes taking part.

Margaret said: "The Connecting Generations initiative will involve residents at the home and older members of the public enjoying more activities and quality time with children and younger adults and, importantly, full family involvement across all ages."

Hillcroft's events organiser, Lesley Malone, added: "We can't wait to launch Connecting Generations, bringing together all ages across the community.

Margaret Sutcliffe (right) receives her award from Councillor May Blake. Code1076620

"To kick it off, West Lancashire College horticulture students will be creating a whole new look at Hillcroft, transforming our gardens with beach, woodland and sensory areas, and the older people will contribute their own thoughts and ideas for the area.

"School pupils from across West Lancashire will also be invited to Hillcroft to join in with activities and events. We're currently in talks with five primary and high schools.

"And we have spoken to several mums–and–tots groups who will be invited to monthly sessions at the home when our residents and visitors can give the younger mums the benefit of their wealth of knowledge of bringing up their own children.

"We will also be running heritage sessions where families can get together to research their own family history."

Long–standing fans 'banned' from Burscough FC – claim

A LONG–standing supporter of Burscough FC claims he has been banned from watching his team because he objects to plans by the owner to demolish the Victoria Park ground.

Dave Hardisty, the 72–year–old chairman of Burscough Independent Supporters Association (BISA), said that along with fellow committee member Keith Forshaw, he has been banned from entering Victoria Park. And he says the ban is being enforced by private security.

The chairman of the club, Mike Swift, refused to confirm if the supporters had been banned.

Last week, the Champion revealed that the owner of the club, Martin Gilchrist, had outlined ambitions to build a new ground, demolishing Victoria Park and moving the club to a site behind the present one.

By Danielle Thompson

Mr Hardisty, who has supported the club for 35 years, said: "I've had no letter explaining why as a season ticket holder, I can't attend matches. I believe it's because I am speaking out against the plans.

"I don't think they should bulldoze the ground without even revealing what they plan to build instead, as well as plans to demolish the sports centre, another important community asset.

"My freedom of speech is being attacked and I won't be bullied into backing down.

"No football club will exist, especially at this level, when fans are discouraged or banned from coming to watch their team."

OAP group seeking support for borough cemetery campaign

A PROTEST group campaigning for a burial ground and cremation site in West Lancashire will be holding a signature–collecting event in Ormskirk tomorrow (Thursday, February 26).

The West Lancashire Pensioners Forum (WLPF) have already collected 1,800 signatures from West Lancashire residents to date and are hoping to gain at least 500 more at the event tomorrow.

The WLPF is an organisation which aims to keep West Lancashire pensioners informed about issues which affect them.

Members will be standing at the entrance of the B & M Bargains store in Railway Road to talk to members of the public from 10am onwards.

Veronica Prescott, secretary of the WLPF, said: "We will spend between three and four hours at the entrances to the store as we did in the Concourse in Skelmersdale, which increased our figures by more than 500 signatures taking the total to around 1,800 now.

"We are not a charity and there will be no monetary appeal, we just need support and signatures.

"Many thanks to B & M for allowing us to utilise their building for our appeal."

MP accuses council over 'secret' plans for students accommodation on bus station site

ROSIE Cooper has accused West Lancs Council of "hypocrisy" over plans to to build accommodation for up to 150 students on the Ormskirk bus station site.

The MP said that papers she obtained under Freedom of Information revealed the proposals for the scheme, including accommodation for 100 to 150 students in a three or four storey building on the site at the junction of Moor Street and St Helens Road.

A spokesman for the council said that Lancashire County Council had declined the plans for the station, part of a wider scheme to look at alternative additional revenue, after discussions in 2013. And he added that the council was now waiting for the county council to confirm a time–scale for the refurbishing/rebuilding of the bus station.

Ms Cooper said: "From what I have read in these papers the actions of West Lancashire Borough Council just beggar belief. It is hypocrisy on the grandest scale. Did they think nobody would notice?

Report by Danielle Thompson

"Let's not forget that while student numbers were rising in the town it was the councillors running the council who failed to act and for years held up the building of student accommodation on the university campus, which is happening today. Instead they allowed first–time buyers' homes in residential areas to become student properties.

"Suddenly, they want to get in on the action and for the council to themselves become student landlords.

"Fortunately Councillor John Fillis, Lancashire's cabinet member for transport, put a stop to these plans for Ormskirk bus station. But why were the plans not discussed openly in council meetings?"

"I think it is time for the Council to come clean over their secret plans.

A spokesman for the council said: "West lancs Council can confirm that there are no proposals currently to build student or any other accommodation on the bus station site.

"In 2013 Lancashire County Council indicated that around £1 million was available to refurbish/rebuild the Ormskirk bus station, subject to a number of revenue implications being met by the borough council. Exploratory discussions were subsequently held between officers at LCC and WLBC and advice from consultants was procured by LCC to see if a wider project, to enhance the facilities and street scene in this part of the town might be feasible, offer value for money and enable any additional revenue implications to be met without cost to the taxpayer.

"LCC subsequently indicated that they did not wish to pursue the idea of a wider scheme. Earlier indications of revenue impact have also changed. The borough council is now awaiting confirmation of LCC's plans to refurbish/rebuild the bus station and the timescales for this."

Mere's 40th birthday

The original cabin at Martin Mere shown when it was first constructed in 1974 Code NA

By Danielle Thompson

THE Wildfowl and Wetlands Trust Martin Mere at Burscough celebrates its 40th birthday on Sunday (March 1) and the centre has a host of activites lined up to mark the special milestone.

On the day visitors can enjoy free pond–dipping activities from 11am to 12.30pm and 2 to 3.30pm; draw their favourite bird in a free art competition; watch the family of otters feed at 11.30am and 2.30pm; and witness more than 1,000 Whooper swans feed on the mere at 3 and 3.30pm.

There is also the chance to hand–feed birds from around the world as you get up close and personal with flamingos, swans and ducks.

The reserve is also launching a 40th birthday photography competition and visitors can take snaps on the day to submit.

The mere first opened its doors to the general public on March 1, 1975, welcoming 500 visitors at a cost of just 40p per adult!

Since then it has welcomed more than 5.5million visitors, as well as playing host to in excess of 300,000 school educational visits.

The idea for the centre developed from a close friendship that grew up between Sir Peter Scott and local haulage contractor, Ronnie Barker.

Knowing of Sir Peter's passion for wildlife and conservation and that many Pink–footed geese and Bewick swans roosted in the area on land owned by the Slingers, owners of Windmill Animal Farm, Ronnie introduced him to Matt Slinger and Martin Mere's incredible journey began.

Some 363 acres were purchased for £52,000 in 1972. The land was derelict and used for intensive agriculture purposes and there wasn't a tree on it!

But it took just three years to turn into a site of international importance crowned by a royal visit when the Duke of Edinburgh came to Burscough in 1978.

48% of women in borough paid less than Living Wage

Report by Henry James

NEARLY half of all women workers in West Lancashire are paid less than the Living Wage, according to a survey by the TUC.

The borough has once again been highlighted as an area with a high percentage of people being paid less than £7.85 per hour, with women in the borough particularly affected.

Figures published by the TUC show West Lancs in fourth place on a list of Living Wage 'black spots' in the North West, with 37.7% of jobs based here paying less than the recommended amount.

This follows a recent report by the GMB Union listing the 10 local authority areas in England and Wales with the highest proportion of jobs paying less than the Living Wage in 2014 in which West Lancs was again placed with fourth.

And for working women in the borough the picture is even bleaker, according to the TUC.

Across the UK as a whole it found that 26.6% of women are paid below the Living Wage, rising to 28.9% here in the North West, while in West Lancs the figure is 48.3%.

The Living Wage is a recommended rate of pay that takes into account the true cost of living in the UK. In November 2014 the national Living Wage increased to £7.85 per hour outside of London and £9.15 in the capital.

North West TUC regional secretary, Lynn Collins, said: "Extending the Living Wage is a vital step towards tackling the growing problem of in–work poverty here in the North West and Britain as a whole.

"Working families have experienced the biggest squeeze on their living standards since Victorian times and these Living Wage figures show that women have been hit the hardest."

Arrest warrant issued for post office burglar

POLICE have issued an arrest warrant for a burglar who failed to appear at Liverpool Crown Court.

Kurtis Rowson was sentenced in his absence to three years in prison for the burglary at the post office on Square Lane, Burscough in June 2014.

The 24–year–old from Walton is white, about 6ft tall, of slim build with short fair hair and has a Liverpool accent. He has connections to the Walton Vale and Kirkby areas of Merseyside.

Sergeant Steve Monk of Skelmersdale Police said: "We are keen to trace Rowson as soon as possible and if anybody has seen him or knows of his current whereabouts I would urge them to contact us."

Anyone with information can contact Lancashire Police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Helping hand for jobseekers

WORK clubs will now offer advice and support on finding work and training opportunities to jobseekers in Lancashire.

Staff from Lancashire Adult Learning are offering free weekly sessions in community venues across the county.

Sessions will be held at Ormskirk library from 1 to 4pm on Mondays and at Skelmersdale library from 9.30am to 12.30pm on Fridays when free Internet access and professional support will be available to help people search for jobs with advice on education and training also on hand.

People who attend the sessions will receive one–to–one advice from the tutor when they arrive to help them to make the most of their time.

County Councillor Tony Martin, Lancashire's cabinet member for adult and community services, said: "These weekly work clubs are set up in the heart of the community so that they are easy to get to. They provide people with advice and support which is totally confidential. Anyone ready to apply for work can get help with writing their CV, covering letters and application forms so that they present themselves as well as possible to a potential employer. They can also practise being in an interview situation and get tips to help with this.

"Universal jobmatch is also available – this is a facility to help people to find and apply for the latest jobs, locally, nationally and abroad. The work clubs are an opportunity to meet other people, exchange skills, share experiences, find opportunities, make contacts and get help."

To find out more about the work clubs call 0300 123 6703.

Police helicopter base marked for closure

A POLICE support helicopter often seen in the skies above West Lancashire is to be grounded.

The National Police Air Service (NPAS) helicopter base in Warton on the Fylde will be decommissioned from 2017 meaning that any air support needed by police in West Lancs will need to come from Manchester or Cheshire – both of which would take at least 20 minutes to arrive provided they aren't needed elsewhere.

NPAS Warton can respond to emergencies and police investigations in the borough within ten minutes.

Chief Superintendent Ian Whitehouse of the National Police Air Service said: "NPAS needs to find further substantial financial savings with a target of 14% of revenue cuts over the next three years on top of the 23% savings already made. Local police forces are looking to rationalise their estate and ways of operating and NPAS is no different."

The NPAS Warton helicopter base is to be decommissioned

Uni staff strike gold with heart campaign

STAFF at Edge Hill have been awarded gold status by the North West Ambulance Service NHS Trust (NWAS) for their campaign raising awareness of heart health, basic life support and use of defibrillators.

The Ormskirk university was required to fulfil a series of criteria to gain the Gold CardiacSmart award, which included almost 90 staff being trained to become CardiacSmart with NWAS.

Staff members Susan Murrin Bailey, senior lecturer and director of enterprise and employability, Phil Crompton, head of paramedic education, and David Cobb, head of professional standards, led the CardiacSmart initiative.

The scheme aims to extend the blanket coverage of public access Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) and provide more individuals with training in basic life support to improve cardiac arrest victims' chances of survival.

Around 30,000 people suffer a cardiac arrest outside of hospital each year and with every minute a person does not receive treatment their chance of survival decreases by 10%.

Cardiac arrest is the most extreme case of an emergency, as the patient loses consciousness at once and there are no signs of life.

Phil Crompton and Susan Murrin–Bailey with the CardiacSmart award

Defibrillators give an electric shock through the chest wall and help to restore a normal heartbeat. The speed of response, Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and defibrillation within the first few minutes will improve patients' chance of survival and recovery.

Phil Crompton said: "Making Edge Hill a safer place to work and study by installing a defibrillator and providing staff with emergency life support training is a positive and simple action to take.

"The training, which includes CPR and operating a defibrillator, was provided free by the North West Ambulance Service together with information and support on how to become CardiacSmart. It's really easy to make a difference and may be save a life."

Finishing line in sight for link road

Relief for motorists as Switch Island work nears completion

Report by Tom Martin

Cllr Peter Dowd at the site Code NA

THE Thornton to Switch Island Link Road is entering its final stages of completion with surfacing works now being carried out, much to the relief of motorists across Sefton and West Lancashire.

Contractor Balfour Beatty, has started to lay the main road surface at the link road's new junction on Brickwall Lane, between Netherton and Thornton.

Once that section has been completed, surfacing will continue on the main stretch between Holgate and Brickwall Lane.

Street lighting columns are being installed at the new roundabout and at Brickwall Lane while the drainage system and drainage ponds are in the final stages of completion.

Work has also started on preparing the road verges at the Thornton end of the scheme and the final phase of the works at Switch Island is scheduled to start at the end of February.

The project experienced delays in 2014, but the long–awaited bypass is expected to open this spring.

The new 2.8 mile link road will be known as the A5758 Broom's Cross Road. Broom's Cross is the site of a medieval wayside cross near Thornton.

When complete, the road is expected to reduce peak hour journey times by up to seven minutes between Thornton and Switch Island.

It will also take high volumes of 'through traffic' out of the communities of Netherton and Thornton.

Cllr Peter Dowd, Leader of Sefton Council, said: "It is becoming quite clear to see that this much needed road is nearing completion.

"Once finished, Brooms Cross Road will answer many years of calls for a bypass in this area and we thank residents for their continued patience."

The road is costing £19.5m – with £14.5m from the Department for Transport and £5m from Sefton Council.

Cllr John Fairclough, Sefton Council's Cabinet Member for Transportation, said: "Like many major engineering projects, there have been some unforeseen challenges along the way, but our contractor Balfour Beatty is working very hard to hand over the completed road as quickly as possible.

Hospital care was second to none

I AM writing about my recent experience at Ormskirk Hospital.

I went in at 10.30am on Monday, February 9 for a hysterectomy and went to theatre at 2.30pm and the ward was run like a smooth assembly line from the minute I entered till I left two days later.

The nurses were brilliant, very friendly and efficient and nothing was too much trouble. They work very hard but still find time to make you feel at ease, explaining everything that is going to happen to you.

I was only there a couple of days but the food I had was delicious. You order a couple of hours before it gets delivered – starter, main and desert at lunch time and evening meal, while breakfast is a choice of hot toast or cereal. There is also a day room where you can help yourself to tea and coffee at any time so it's nice and hot, not like what you used to get off the tea trolley which was cold and too milky.

I asked could I go home on the Wednesday but they said they just needed to take some more bloods as the ones from the day before were not good. The doctor came to see me and said as long as my new bloods were fine I could go home.

They checked that someone was going to be at home to look after me and gave me a discharge advice explaining what to expect when I came home and covering any issues that could happen, enclosing a telephone number to ring if I had any concerns.

I was worried my discharge would be delayed waiting for the results of my bloods but there was no need, the results were back within 30 minutes and they were fine. I was told I just had to wait for some medication to take home but I should telephone whoever was coming to take me home.

It was lunch time so I ate my lunch, my meds arrived and my friend came to take me home.

From the minute I arrived until I left the service was second to none, fantastic.

Well done and thank–you NHS, nurses and Ormskirk Hospital.

Mrs Carol Sheridan,

• I RECENTLY spent three nights in E ward at Ormskirk Hospital and would like to say a big thank–you to everyone involved in my care.

The nurses who came in of a morning with happy, jolly smiles to wish us good morning and all the nurses who took care of me were little angels – they should get the same money as footballers get, they are worth every penny.

I hope all the ladies in the same boat as me are all well and happy. We had lots of laughs together, the food was first class and everywhere was spotless.

I enjoyed being spoiled.

Vera Waby,
Ainsdale

Golden opportunity to rectify planning madness

I FEEL sorry for those who are battling to save Glenburn Sports College but hold little hope for their success.

Perhaps, though, sad as the loss of the college would be, there may be a golden opportunity now to rectify the ridiculous planning decision to locate the centre of the town at the Concourse.

Anyone who has had to drive halfway around Skelmersdale to get there would agree it's in the wrong place. Whitemoss roundabout is the obvious centre of the town with direct access off the motorway and everywhere else for that matter.

Of course, St Modwen would not agree, preferring to forge ahead with plans that suit their own purpose. But these plans were made well before the college's current crisis.

There have been several revisions since the initial draft so why not take advantage of this present opportunity? Scrap the current plans for the High Street and relocate its route from Whitemoss roundabout terminating at the Concourse.

There would inevitably be protests and all sorts of obstacles placed in the way but nothing that cannot be overcome if there is a will. This is a once–in–a–lifetime chance for the town to impose some common sense on the planners which, sadly, they have not shown so far.

Who in their right minds would place large distribution centres with high volume heavy goods traffic on the far side of town and a business park next to the motorway whose occupants largely come and go by car in rush hour only?

R. E. O'Brien, by email

Local politics needs a shake–up

HOW very interesting and obviously expected to see a letter in the Champion (January 28) from Alderman Bullen giving his very respected views about the new political party, Our West Lancashire.

He hasn't previously raised any public comment about a certain national party which will be lobbying for our vote both locally and nationally, but is obviously feeling concerned about a new local political party within West Lancashire.

This is long since needed – from my observations the two very comfortable parties in power are doing little for the people of West Lancashire. I couldn't even raise a reply to a letter sent to my 'local councillor' in October about safety on a certain main road. Probably I am expecting too much!

I'd vote and support Our West Lancashire if they agree to listen to and follow up constituents' enquiries.

Chris Rice, Holmeswood

I'm a pensioner too but bus pass is no use without a bus!

I WISH to reply to Alan Lenton's rather muddled response (February 11) to my earlier letter.

The reason I was annoyed with MP Rosie Cooper for supporting a group wanting this perk is because I feel she did not do enough to support those of us who lost our only means of public transport when Arriva decided to re–route the 300 Southport to Liverpool service. This was almost certainly because Lancashire County Council decided to reduce the subsidy to the bus company.

I didn't make it clear that I am a pensioner too and so have a bus pass that is not much use to me anymore. With the nearest bus stop now being two miles away I am totally reliant on my car for all of life's necessities and am concerned for the future as I get older.

If West Lancs pensioners get this perk it will have to be paid for by Lancashire County Council via West Lancs council tax and not by shareholders.

Mr Lenton says that he pays "more council tax that any Sefton resident." I have checked council tax bands for Sefton and West Lancs and it seems that the basic rate for non–parished areas is a bit more in Sefton. How much you pay in a parished area varies according to where you live.

The dearest parish in West Lancs is Hilldale but three parishes in Sefton are dearer, Aintree, Lydiate and Maghull, the latter costing £50 a year more than Hilldale for band D and £100 a year more than non–parished Ormskirk. So Mr Lenton does not pay more than all Sefton residents.

Free train travel would be very nice but I'd prefer to have the bus service back so that I can get to the doctor's, supermarket, post office, bank, dentist, Southport and to the trains!

Hazel Anderton,
Renacres Lane, Halsall

Walk route is just a load of rubbish!

I WALK my dog most days along the Linear Park and Smith Way in Ormskirk. The route must now be one of the most litter–strewn strolls in Lancashire.

It's not just the occasional sweet wrapper but cans, glass and plastic bottles, cartons, whole bags of assorted rubbish – you name it, it is dumped somewhere along this route.

Believe me, I am not Mr Angry of Ormskirk, just deeply saddened by the thoughtless behaviour of my fellow citizens.

Surely it cannot be that difficult to use a bin or take it home and recycle?

I don't have an answer, maybe someone does?

I know this does not rank as high as the fracking debate or the town centre upgrade but it does give a clue as to how we think about our environment.

Mark Cowing, Ormskirk

Shabby streets

I HAVE lived in Aughton for the last 13 years or so and I have yet to see the streets clean. There are cluttering gates, blocked pavements and they are full of rubbish – there isn't one road that is clear.

I pay council tax for three services but evidently road cleansing is not one of them. I get about in and around West Lancashire and I find Aughton the worst for street cleaning.

Mr G. Whittaker, Aughton

Wood carvings are fabulous

AS a regular visitor to Ruff Wood in Ormskirk I would like to express my appreciation to whoever is responsible for the fabulous wood carvings that have been arriving there recently.

The carvings are absolutely beautiful and have obviously taken someone a great deal of time and effort to create.

Greens name their election candidate

THE West Lancashire Green Party have selected local man Ben Basson as their propective parliamentary candidate for the borough in the forthcoming General Election.

Mr Basson grew up in in Aughton and attended Ormskirk Grammar School before gaining a degree in wildlife conservation from Liverpool John Moores University.

He now works as a countryside ranger for West Lancs Borough Council and lives in Haskayne.

Local residents are invited to go along and meet Mr Basson at a Green Party Ceilidh being held on Saturday, March 14 at the Royal British Legion Club, Lord Street, Burscough from 8pm.

Residents kick up a stink over plan to relocate carcass processing plant

Report by Danielle Thompson

AN animal carcass processing operation could be sited in three former aircraft hangars in Burscough if plans are given the go–ahead.

Residents living near to the former hangars on Tollgate Road have already objected to the plans to relocate the business, Martland Knackers Yard, from its current location at Barton's Farm, Moss Lane, saying that it is "inappropriate so close to a residential area."

The business collects animal carcasses from farms, highways, beaches, rivers, zoos and racecourses and processes them into pet food, hides and bonemeal before the remnants are sent for rendering at a plant in Widnes.

The current site handles between 60 and 100 tonnes of carcasses per week.

The existing business at Barton's Farm is surrounded by housing and an Environmental Impact Statement submitted to West Lancs Council states that "many" residents at the current location "find the smell that at times comes from the yard to be unacceptable."

The application contends that the business is necessary as the burial of animals other than pets is illegal to protect groundwater from contamination.

According to the application the new facility would have improved extraction and smell–reduction systems installed, where contaminated air is released under a large area of aerated soil, planted up with heather or similar plans to absorb the bacteria.

This system could not be used at the current site as there is not enough open–field space.

Burscough residents have taken to the council's planning website to object to the plans.

One concern is odour, with old carcasses – including roadkill and beach carcasses, especially whales – causing the strongest odour.

But the application states that the building will be sealed and no properties are situated within the maximum radius the Environmental Health received previous complaints from in its current location.

Karen Traynor, from nearby Lordsgate Lane, wrote: "I and all of our neighbours are appalled and distressed by this application. This is a family area with many children. It is totally inappropriate to suggest that a knackers yard should be placed in this vicinity. This is absolutely shocking."

And Sharon Haigh commented: " I find it very inappropriate to be so close to residential area. Even though it is planned for an industrial estate there are so many children living in this area. I think it's disgusting, not only the smell, but the whole production process that will be happening at this site, so close to residents."

West Lancs Council are scheduled to make a decision on the application by Friday, March 6.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Manager Paul Kane feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Crosby, Litherland, Aintree, Maghull, Walton, Anfield, Netherton, Bootle, Formby, Ormskirk and Skelmersdale areas & Paul is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Paul a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

James Downes cuts the ribbon to open the new Vision Express, with Jennifer Hodson and manager Lynne Cross

Young cancer survivor is special guest at store opening

A SPECIAL guest was inivited along to perform the official opening ceremony of a new eyecare store in Ormskirk.

Twelve–year–old eye cancer survivor James Downes joined manager, Lynne Cross and staff member, Jennifer Hodson to cut the ribbon to open the new Vision Express store on the site of the former Conlon's opticians in Aughton Street.

The youngster and dad Robert were special guests of the Childhood Eye Cancer Trust (CHECT) a nominated charity of Vision Express which provides information and advice for families affected by the childhood eye cancer.

James was diagnosed with bilateral retinoblastoma, cancer of the retinas in both eyes, in 2003 at the age of just nine months.

Lynne Cross said: "It was lovely to meet James and Robert. We're proud to be supporting CHECT which does so much to raise awareness of eye cancer."

Robert added: "We really enjoyed opening the Ormskirk Vision Express store and were pleased to be part of the day and to help raise awareness of the work of CHECT."

Rambler slams county council over footpath

Public right of way closed for a year due to confusion – claim

By Danielle Thompson

A KEEN rambler claims that confusion between two departments at Lancashire County Council has led to a public footpath being closed for a year.

Michael Smout, chairman of the West Lancashire Ramblers group, tried to use the footpath that crosses Broad Lane in Downholland only to find it closed.

When he tried to find out why, he claims he found himself being passed between the county council's highways and public rights of way departments without receiving a satisfactory explanation.

Mr Smout said that the path was shut in January 2013, reopened briefly, then shut again in February 2014.

He said: "This particular right of way, Downholland footpath No. 10 reaches Broad Lane, near Downholland Cross, through a council site, which is used for storing grit and other items. Although there is a footpath sign on the road, the entrance and exit to the footpath has been blocked by the erection of a large locked fence.

"Since the footpath was blocked for a second time my complaints went unheeded. In February 2014 I was told that the public rights of way team would contact me when it had been resolved.

"A year on, I contacted Downholland Parish Council for help and last month the parish clerk told me that the county council had resolved issues on various footpaths, except for footpath No. 10.

"If Lancashire County Council are unable to reopen an obstructed right of way on their own land they must be in a state of real administrative confusion."

A county council spokesman said: "We're sorry this footpath has been blocked and will ensure it is reopened. We understand it was inadvertently blocked as staff sought to secure the site to prevent travellers gaining access to the adjoining field.

"We'll also look into what we can do to ensure that the footpath is not blocked in future."

Churches celebrate Women's World Day of Prayer

WORSHIPPERS from across West Lancashire are being invited to celebrate the annual Women's World Day of Prayer at services across the borough on Friday, March6.

Local inter–denominational services will be held at St Teresa's Catholic Church, Up Holland at 1.30pm; St Paul's Church, Skelmersdale at 2pm; St Peter's Parish Church, Mawdesley at 2pm; St Anne's RC Church, Ormskirk at 7.30pm; and Burscough Methodist Church at 7.30pm.

Organiser, Margaret Daunt, said: "An estimated three million people in more than 170 countries will gather to observe Women's World Day of Prayer. In the UK alone more than 5,000 services will be held. Everyone is welcome to attend the services, men, women and people of all ages."

£700,000 Lottery funding for borough projects

MORE than £700,000 of National Lottery funding was invested in West Lancashire projects last year alone, new figures reveal.

Across the area, 26 grants were awarded last year benefiting local arts, sports and heritage projects, alongside community groups helping those most in need.

Grants were awarded to a wide range of projects in 2014, including:

• £213,000 to Edge Hill University Sports Activation project.

• £9,100 for Aspen Way Seniors to run IT classes for older people.

• £6,600 for the 1st Up Holland Scout Group to restore a sailing boat.

In addition, these projects, or any organisations that have ever received Lottery funding can be nominated for the National Lottery Awards 2015 and the chance to win a £2,000 cash prize and national recognition at a ceremony broadcast on BBC 1.

I'm still here – gripes and all!

REPORTS of my imminent demise have been much exaggerated – mainly by me I'm afraid.

I sit here amid the fading memory of my recent flu (still coughing up muck, still snivelling somewhat and still feeling rather sorry for myself – but hey! that's Nimbyism for you!)

Quite seriously though, my only real gripe now is that if I walk further than a few hundred yards the muscles connecting the back of both my feet to the back of my knees start to ache. Not in a flu–like sort of way, but as if I'd been taking too much exercise or climbing a lot of steep hills (neither of which I have done for the past few weeks).

Suggestions as to what and why this is would gratefully be received.

And a big thank–you to the woman who phoned me and offered to do shopping for me and the dogs.

I turned her down (because that's just me) but the thought was there and it cheered me no end. Thanks again!

Anyway, enough of my illnesses – the other day I picked up one of those rather good free newspapers one finds these days on buses and trains.

Now there is usually rather too much about celebs in this paper for my taste, but this particular edition carried the results of a survey to highlight the Top 50 things in modern life which really hack us off.

Some of the gripes raised went straight over my head (slow wi–fi for instance or a scattering of celebs who others find as irritating as I probably would had I ever heard of them).

But some – including the No. 1 dislike – really rang a bell. Out there at number one was self–service checkouts. I flatly refuse to be lectured by a machine, particularly one which seems hell–bent on proving it's a lot cleverer than I.

One, or rather two, entries interested me.

At number five was public transport and at number 12 was BO on public transport. Interesting from a couple of angles.

I do not know from what age group this poll of 700 was taken, but I suspect that assuming most were adults it is quite likely that the pollees rarely, if ever, use buses or trains anyway.

So to say you don't like it is just prejudice. And to imply that one reason not to like it (or use it) that many of us who do are, shall we say, smelly, is a slander and in any case untrue.

You might just as well say you don't like pubs or restaurants because of smelly customers.

Mind you, in a poll which mentions Jimmy Carr and Justin Bieber as irritations, but fails entirely to rate the odious Jonathan Ross, there is obviously something rather skewed going on.

And talking of odd things being included/excluded from this list of Top 50 wind–ups, the one thing I honestly thought would be up somewhere in the Top Ten would have been dog poo.

But no! Not in the Top Ten – nor anywhere else in this rather off Top 50. But guess what crept in at Number 43? Cat poo!

Really interesting though (and again it makes you wonder from what age group most of this sample was taken) was Bad Grammar up at Number 11.

Heartening in an age when I thought Bad Grammar had something to do with granny being locked up for some senile crimewave or other.

Call for public question time at council meetings

Councillor Owens

By Henry James

A WEST Lancs borough councillor is calling for members of the public to be able to table and ask questions of their elected representatives at council meetings.

Councillor Adrian Owens put forward a motion to that effect at a meeting of the full council last night (Tuesday, February 25).

The Derby ward councillor, who resigned from the Conservatives last month to launch an independent group, Our West Lancashire, said: "I've placed a motion on the council agenda that would allow members of the public to submit written questions to cabinet members and then ask those questions and a related supplementary question in a public question time slot at the beginning of council meetings.

"I was at the forefront of introducing public speaking at planning committees more than 10 years ago and that works well.

"It's past time when we should allow residents to quiz their elected representatives at full council meetings.

"Many other Lancashire councils allow this already, as do parish councils here in West Lancashire."

Cllr. Owens believes anyone who works or resides in the borough should be able to ask questions of members of the cabinet at meetings of the council.

Chance to have a say on health at drop–in events

HEALTH leaders from the NHS in West Lancashire are inviting residents to drop–in listening events in Burscough and Skelmersdale.

The events will take place this Saturday (February 28) from 2 to 4pm in the Older Peoples Club in Burscough and on Saturday, March 7 from 10am to 12pm at Sandy Lane Health Centre in Skelmersdale.

Senior representatives from NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust and Southport & Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust will attend the drop–ins.

Greg Mitten, board member of NHS West Lancashire CCG who oversees patient and public involvement, said: "The best way for us to understand how you are experiencing local health services is by talking to each other. We would like to hear from anyone who has feedback, a compliment, a complaint, a story, an idea for improvement – anything at all about local health services.

"Your views will allow us to ensure services are working as they should, so we can improve the health and wellbeing of West Lancashire.

"No matter what your interest or feedback is on, please do come along as your views really do matter to us. There will be confidential ways you can provide your experiences on the day."

Providing feedback, both good and bad, allows NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) and its partner organisations, Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust and the Southport & Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust, to understand their services better and shape them to suit what people need.

Anyone who would like to find out more about the events can contact myview@westlancashireccg.nhs.uk or call 01695 588 000.

Local health group backs cancer campaign

NHS West Lancashire is supporting the national 'Be Clear on Cancer' campaign, which aims to raise awareness of the signs and symptoms of oesophageal cancer (cancer of the gullet/food pipe) and stomach cancer.

The campaign urges people to tell their doctor if they've had heartburn most days for three weeks or more or if they have difficulty swallowing food.

Around 12,900 people are diagnosed with oesophageal or stomach cancer in England each year and these cancers cause around 10,200 deaths annually.

Other symptoms of oesophageal or stomach cancer include:

- Indigestion on and off for three weeks or more.
- Food feels like it's sticking in your throat when you swallow.
- Losing weight for no obvious reason.
- Trapped wind and frequent burping.
- Feeling full very quickly when eating.
- Feeling bloated after eating.
- Nausea or vomiting.
- Pain or discomfort in your upper stomach area.

Dr Jack Kinsey, local GP and NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) board member, said: "It's important that people are aware of the signs and symptoms of oesophageal cancer and don't just learn to live with them.

"You're not wasting anyone's time by having your symptoms checked out – early identification of any cancer could save your life."

Free course to boost your self confidence

A SUPPORT service for adults in Lancashire is offering free ten–week personal development courses which aim to help people to develop their self–confidence.

There are still places available on the next Looking Forward to the Future course, which will start on Monday, March 2 from 12.30pm to 3.30pm at Ormskirk Wellbeing Centre on Moorgate.

The courses are being run by the Social Prescribing team at Help Direct, a support and information service for all adults aged 18 and over in Lancashire.

It aims to help people get the right practical support, information and advice that they need before a small problem becomes a crisis.

The self–confidence course will focus on positive thinking and self–help, and will help participants to work on their communication and social skills, handling different situations, moving on, managing emotions, and with motivation.

The team also aim to help participants to find new hobbies and interests, get them involved in more social activities, and improve their well–being.

To join up for the free course call 01695 586509.

Warning over fake police officer calls

Report by Danielle Thompson

RESIDENTS in West Lancashire are being warned to be on their guard against a telephone scam involving a man claiming to be a police officer.

It follows a number of cases in the county in which a man targeted elderly or vulnerable people telling them that their bank card or account had been comprised.

They are then advised to withdraw money from the account and transfer it a 'safe' account or hand it to a 'police officer' for checking.

The man then says that the money will need to be checked for fingerprinting by the 'officer' who then attends the victim's address and takes their money.

Some of the victims – mainly aged in their 70s and 80s – handed over money or transferred it into a fraudulent bank account, losing thousands of pounds.

DC Will Hogan from Preston CID said: "These are despicable crimes against vulnerable, elderly victims.

"This con artist has even been going so far to say that there were two men currently in police custody elsewhere in the country for trying to access that person's bank account.

"He has been extremely plausible, providing a supposed name and police collar number, both of which are false.

"Despite current reports being confined to the Burnley and Preston areas, this offender may try elsewhere and I am reminding people to be vigilant and if you get this type of phone call, report it to the police and/or your bank before transferring any money into another account or agreeing to hand any of your cash over.

"People who commit these offences will often target the elderly, posing as officials to gain their confidence and trust. No police officer or other official body will ever ask for your bank details or would ever ask you to withdraw or transfer funds.

"If you have an elderly friend or relative, please let them know that this is happening so they can avoid becoming a potential victim."

Anybody with information can contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 or on–line at Crimestoppers–uk.org.

Alternatively you can contact Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 or online at www.actionfraud.police.uk.

BNI FEATURE

A personal approach to fitness

Imagine achieving the fitness goals you have in mind. Think about how you could shorten the amount of time this takes by ensuring the fitness programme you undertake is tailored to your goals. How much easier do you find accomplishing things when you have a person's undivided attention? A personal fitness trainer can provide and help you achieve all of these.

Finding the right balance between progression, the enjoyment of achieving and maintaining fitness is important. Paul Halstead's passion for improving clients' fitness and well-being has been relied upon for over 14 years. His friendly approach ensuring the balance of fitness work and enjoyment is still a passion as evident today as when he first started.

Paul says, "For some people the prospect of starting out with a trainer has an element of fear, so I go out of my way to let any new clients get to know me during the consultation and health check stage with a taster session and allow any feelings of apprehension to disappear. Once the goals and aspirations are set I assess the client's fitness levels, lifestyle and from then on ensure constant tangible progression all the way to achieving those goals. There is a massive difference having a personal trainer and working out by alone as some much time is wasted in gyms doing exercises that don't help people achieve their goals. My clients see the progress they make and quickly understand that this is the case so keep on having regular sessions. They quickly get into the habit of training effectively with a proper structure, take advice with regards to nutrition and lifestyle as they quickly see progress".

Working from the fully equipped Base 51 Studio in Birkdale, Paul offers a free taster session which involves a health check and fitness assessment. Paul explains "People are often intimidated by the gym environment, but at Base 51 it is on a one-to-one trainer and client only format".

Paul also does group training sessions on Friday mornings at various venues around Southport and popular Spinning classes at the Base 51 Studio.

Although a relatively new member to BNI, Paul has already found the benefits of being a member and it has added to his business. Paul is building trust with fellow BNI members with one to one sessions, giving taster sessions so they get to know his approach, with a view to increase the prospect of referrals as he gets to know their respective businesses as well.

Book your FREE taster session to see how a personal trainer can help you achieve your fitness goals. Simply contact Paul on 07745 201139 or email phfitness@hotmail.co.uk today.

County council budget set after six–week public consultation

Council tax to rise by 1.99%

By Danielle Thompson

LANCASHIRE County Council's budget, outlining how £152 million in savings will be made by April 2018, has been announced following a six–week public consultation.

An adjustment to the budget set aside £5 million to establish a green energy fund to enable research and development work, support green energy businesses in Lancashire and develop energy solutions for the county as a whole and the council itself.

The county council will spend a total of £726.7 million in the financial year 2015/16 and council tax will rise by 1.99%.

David Borrow, deputy leader of the council and portfolio holder for finance, explained: "The combination of funding cuts by central government and rising demand for services such as social care means we have to find unprecedented savings.

"We had already identified £21m of savings for 2015/16 in last year's budget and have now agreed a further £79m of savings to be made this year, a total of £100m.

"Between 2010 and 2018 we will have made savings of £547 million, which leaves us no option but to take radical action.

"We have already made significant savings by introducing more intelligent and efficient ways of working and we will continue to do that. However, it is also clear that we will have to deliver some services in a different way and stop providing some services altogether.

Councillor David Borrow

"We are doing all we can to ensure that we protect the most vulnerable in the county and we remain committed to spending our resources fairly, according to need.

"We're asking council tax payers to contribute a little extra because the relatively small amount of money per household the increase represents will help us to deliver several million pounds worth of services that we wouldn't be able to deliver without it.

"This is a period of great uncertainty for the council as we approach a General Election and a lack of clarity on the potential financial impact of the Care Act, so it is vital that we have sufficient reserves in place to cope with potentially extraordinary demands on the council's budget."

MP supports proposal for residents to have right of appeal on planning decisions

ROSIE Cooper has highlighted residents' concerns that limits of Houses of Multiple Occupancy are being breached in the borough.

Speaking in a parliamentary debate the West Lancs MP supported a proposal that would allow communities the right of appeal on planning decisions. Currently only the applicant can appeal to have a local planning authority's decision reviewed.

Ms Cooper cited a case of an application for a House of Multiple Occupancy in Ormskirk which she said was granted 12 months after the landlord began to rent the house to students. She said this was illegal under HMO laws and the borough council should have taken retrospective action against the landlord but instead he had been granted a licence on appeal.

Mary Wright, chair of the New Way Residents and Tenants Association, said: "We are massively disappointed that another HMO has been allowed in this area. As residents we want to know that the council is working to protect residents and not allowing landlords free rein."

A spokesman for West Lancashire Borough Council said: "From a planning and licensing perspective no irregularities have taken place. The property doesn't need a HMO licence, and therefore hasn't been granted one.

"The new system would allow local residents to lodge an appeal against a planning approval given by the council.

"This particular application was refused by the council, as the proposal was deemed contrary to its Local Plan.

"The proposal was, however, allowed on appeal by the Planning Inspectorate. The proposed legislation would not therefore have made any difference to the outcome of the matter."

Nature reserve to host free guided walks

THE Gorse Hill Nature Reserve in Aughton will be open to the public from 10.30am to 4pm on the first Sunday of the month starting on March 1 when there will be free access to the information cabin, small car park and the woodland walk in Cabin Wood.

There will also be a free guided walk on each of these Sundays from 1.30 to 3pm to parts of the reserve not normally open.

Developed to encourage wildlife on former agricultural land off Holly Lane, the reserve was set up by a charitable trust in 1996.

The 85–acre site includes wildflower meadows, heathland, mixed woodlands, ponds, reed beds and a heritage orchard.

It relies on the help and support of volunteers from the local community.

Reserve manager, Jonathan Atkins, said: "We're very much looking forward to welcoming more visitors, especially since the success of our Apple weekend in October which was so well attended.

"Whilst we have several public footpaths through the reserve, the guided walks through some of our meadows and woodlands will enable local visitors to see areas not normally open and to see some of the work for wildlife that is being carried out here."

For more information visit www.nwecotrust.org.uk or contact the reserve manager on 07761212636.

Walkers are allowed to take dogs, providing they are on a lead, and are advised to wear suitable footwear as the paths can be muddy.

Refreshments will also be on sale.

Talk raises £350 for church repair fund

A TALK by the chairman of Lathom Park Trust, Paul Kenyon, entitled 'Lady Margaret Beaufort: The Lady who changed Lathom and England' raised £350 for a worthy cause.

The talk, telling the life story of Lady Margaret, the mother of Henry VII, who lived at Lathom House, was held at St James' Church in Westhead with proceeds going to the church's repair fund.

Chance to learn from rangers' green team

THERE is a chance to learn about the work that goes into looking after West Lancashire's urban parks and pick up some useful gardening tips at two free events hosted by the borough council rangers.

The Green Fingers Planting events are being held on Saturday and Sunday, March 7 and 8 at Stanley Coronation Park, Skelmersdale and Richmond Park, Burscough respectively.

Both start at 1pm at the parks' bowling pavilions and members of the public can help plant some beautiful blooms to bring a vibrant splash of colour while helping to attract an array of nectar–loving wildlife.

Children under 12 will require adult supervision, sturdy footwear will be required and people attending should dress appropriately for the task and the weather conditions.

Meanwhile, the rangers are also looking for help on Saturday, March 14 with hedgelaying, a traditional form of creating field boundaries which has great benefits for wildlife as it is a sustainable form of management which produces habitat corridors.

Anyone wishing to take part in this free activity should meet at the ranger hut at 10am. Under–16s will require adult supervision.

For more details on these events call 01695 570258 or 01695 622794.

Meanwhile the regular health walks continue every week. These are open to all and no bookings are required. For more information call 01695 555804.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND ...

JONES HOMES

Multi award winning regional developer Jones Homes are proud to invite you to attend their Part Exchange event taking place on Thursday 5th March from 4:30pm until 7:30pm where experts will be on hand to talk you through the whole Part Exchange process at Priory Gate in Aughton near Ormskirk.

With over 50 years of experience Jones Homes have built a reputation for constructing quality homes in the best locations and this prestigious development of 2 bedroom apartments set in the much sought after and picturesque village of Aughton near Ormskirk is no exception.

The final phase of this popular development has been released and all of the apartments are ready to move into each finished to the highest quality. The contemporary feel of the fitted kitchens and beautifully finished bathrooms make these homes, homes to be proud of, and with breathtaking views across the countryside, the development's rural location feels a million miles away from the hustle & bustle of Liverpool or Manchester but with the local train station a mere 5 minute walk from the development and with excellent links to the motorway Priory Gate has it all.

One of Priory Gates newest residents told us why moving to the development has been one of the best things she has ever done.

'Finding life increasingly difficult with the managing and running of a house on my own with all that it entails, gardening, maintenance etc., I decided to move to a Jones Home and it is one of the best things that I have ever done.

My apartment is lovely, spacious, light and airy. The appointments and fittings are modern and first class quality.

Residing in this most peaceful development, which is surrounded by trees, gardens and beautiful flower beds (which I don't have to tend) I feel so safe and contented. What more could I ask'.

The development's wonderful location allows its residents to live in the much sought after area of Aughton, with all of the everyday amenities that they could need close by.

The development comprises six blocks of apartments. Elegant in style, each block boasts a modern design complemented by traditional features, all built to a premium specification.

This development has been one of Jones Homes' most prestigious in the region, due to the exceptional design of the apartments, and of course the superb location.

The stylish show home is open to visitors and our exceptional sales advisor is available Thursday to Monday from 11am to 5:30pm to show you around.

For more information telephone Priory Gate 01695 581358 or alternatively visit our website www.jones-homes.co.uk for information on all of our availability.

Chance to win tickets to see 'Dead Simple' in Manchester

FOLLOWING the success of the stage adaptation of Peter James' The Perfect Murder earlier this year, an all star cast will bring the claustrophobically thrilling Detective Roy Grace story Dead Simple to the Manchester Opera House stage from March – 02 – 07.

A host of famous faces including Tina Hobley, Jamie Lomas, Gray O' Brien, Rik Makarem and Michael McKell will star in Dead Simple which will be directed by Olivier Award winner Ian Talbot. Michael Harrison thinks he has it all; great career, good friends and a beautiful fiancée. But when his stag night prank goes horribly wrong, Michael finds himself alone, buried alive and staring death in the face. As time runs out and the terror grows, Detective Superintendent Roy Grace tries to solve his mysterious disappearance, but begins to fear that Michael will never be found in time.

Peter James said: "As a writer, all my characters begin in my mind. I flesh them out for the printed page. But nothing can compare to the joy of seeing them turn into real flesh and blood. We were blessed with both casts of The Perfect Murder and we are just as blessed now with the cast for Dead Simple. All of them are actors I really admire and respect, and to see them come together, for the first time, at the read–through of the play was a truly magical experience for me."

Book your tickets today – call 0844 871 3018 or visit www.atgtickets.com/manchester

• We have three pairs of tickets and a signed book to give away. To win a pair of tickets to see Dead Simple at Manchester Opera House on Monday, March 02 just answer this simple question:

Who wrote the original book Dead Simple?

Send your answers by email to – henry.james@champnews.com by 12pm Friday, February 27. Please supply your name, address and contact number.

Emerald Isle to be celebrated at theatre

The Fureys Code NA

PEOPLE will have the chance to celebrate the Emerald Isle at Southport Theatre.

Irish band The Fureys are to play at the venue on Saturday, March 21.

The group are renowned for their hit songs I will love you, When you were sweet 16, The Green fields of France, The old man, Red rose café, From Clare to here, Her father didn't like me anyway, Leaving Nancy, and Steal away.

The Fureys have been entertaining audiences worldwide for 37 years, audiences that have included former Australian Prime Minister John Howard, Former Irish President Mary McAleese and the late Pope John Paul while Tony Blair has publicly stated his favourite peace song of all time is the Fureys Green Fields of France. Recently Ireland President Michael D Higgins attended their concert in Dublin's National Concert Hall.

The band was formed in 1978 literally by accident. George, Paul and Davey were playing in Denmark with their own band called the Buskers and Eddie and Finbar, while touring in Germany were involved in a road accident. When George and Paul got news of the accident they immediately travelled to Germany to be with their brothers. They then decided that they should all be playing together and this was the start of the Fureys.

Inevitably changes have occurred over 30 years. Their brother Paul died suddenly in June 2002 and Finbar left the band in December 1996, however George and Eddie have continued to delight audiences on their tours and have just released a new CD The times they are a changing. One of world's premier young pianists to appear in borough

Report by Henry James

ANNA Fedorova, one of the world's premier young pianists, will perform some of the greatest and most demanding Russian piano music at Douglas Music's concert on Saturday, March 7 at 7.45 pm in Parbold Village Hall.

From an early age, Anna demonstrated an innate musical maturity and astounding technical abilities. Her international concert career took off while she was only a child, and audiences around the world were stunned by the depth and power of her musical expression.

Critics have praised Anna's signature, "sweet modesty and wild expression," which rendered listeners "completely taken by surprise, compelled and astonished."

After winning numerous awards in Russia, America and Europe, her career has already taken her across the world to perform with some of the most famous conductors and orchestras. All acknowledge her talent and her musical maturity which is way beyond her years.

Her musical talent has been shown in her live performance of Rachmaninov's Second Piano concerto, which can be seen on You Tube and has attracted over two and a half million listeners.

At Parbold, Anna will play some of the most virtuosic Russian piano music by Scriabin, Medtner and Rachmaninov that recalls the influence of Chopin and marks the high point in romantic piano music. Anna Fedorova ends her recital with a journey of artistic discovery, Mussorgsky's favourite showpiece Pictures at an Exhibition.

Review by Ron Ellis

• Disposing Of The Body by Hugh Whitemore
• Southport Dramatic Club
• Southport Little Theatre

A SIMPLE tale of adultery. Ted Bullen stars as middle–aged nerd Henry who, forced into early retirement, moves from London to a country cottage with Angela, his wife of 20–odd years, (Kathy Felton–Aksoy) where they befriend their nearest neighbours, Alexander, a schoolteacher (Brendan Gillow) and his attractive wife, Joanna (Sarah Viali).

Joanna has lost her job as a secretary so Henry agrees to let her help catalogue his collection of old HMV records for a book he is writing. Henry is besotted with his new secretary. One thing leads to another, and, despite being an unlikely couple, she being 20 years younger, they are soon bang at it at every opportunity until...

Has she found out about the affair and left her cheating husband? Or did she challenge him about it and, in the frenzy that followed, has he killed her? And, if so, where has he hidden her body?

The most notable feature about the play is how different members of the cast address the audience between scenes, announcing or commentating on events like a newsreel. This means events move along at a fast pace as the scenes are mostly short and suitably in keeping with the short attention spans of the texting generation.

With Angela missing, recriminations start and everyone wants to take a share of the blame. Henry moves in with his sister Kate (Angela McIntyre) who feels she should have stopped his dalliance after he confided in her. His son Ben (Simon Hawkins) flies in from California but realises he has neglected his parents and can't wait to get back.

Even Alexander, when is informed he has been cuckolded, feels he is responsible, for not realising what was happening

Their guilt is nothing, though, compared with that of Henry and his floosie.

In fact, the only person on view without guilt is Basset (Pete Slater), the manager of the hotel where Henry, using an assumed name, enjoyed an assignation with Jo, the details of which Basset, a martial arts expert, passes onto the police.

And amidst all this earnest soul searching steps Inspector Poole (David Davies), an ex–philosophy student (which might explain why he wears a bow tie on the job) who seems to regard the affair as a moral lapse rather than a potentially serious crime.

This is an absorbing play, well directed by Celia Timmington who also designed a clever set, constructed on two levels, thus allowing the action to move seamlessly between three different locations.

The tension keeps up right until the totally unexpected ending. Disposing of the Body will provoke much discussion about the morality of fidelity and the wisdom or otherwise of onlookers keeping silent.

Star Rating 8 out of 10. Thought provoking, well acted and entertaining.

PRAYER

O GOD WHO HAS SAID

"Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you." I know, I seek, I ask that my prayers be answered (request).

O God who has said "All that you ask of the Father in my name will be granted." I humbly and urgently request the Father in thy name that my request be granted (request). O God who has said "Heaven and earth shall pass away but my word shall not." Through the intercession of Mary thy most holy Mother, I feel confident that my prayers will be answered (request) to be said every hour for 9 consecutive hours and promise publication.

THE LANCASHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL
(CHORLEY ROAD, PARBOLD, WEST LANCASHIRE BOROUGH)
(TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF THROUGH TRAFFIC) ORDER 2014

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Lancashire County Council have made an Order under Section 14(1)(a) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended, the effect of which will be to temporarily prohibit any motor vehicle from proceeding over that length of Chorley Road, Parbold, from its junction with Robin Lane to its junction with Bentley Lane, Parbold.

An alternative route for vehicular traffic affected by the closure is via: -Bannister Lane – Whittle Lane – High Moor Lane – Robin Hood Lane – A5209 Hall Lane – A5209 Sparrow Hill – A5209 Parbold Hill – B5246 Lancaster Lane – B5246 Chorley Road and vice versa.
The temporary closure is necessary to allow carriageway patching works to be carried out.

The prohibition will be in operation daily between 0800 hours and 1700 hours on Monday 23rd February 2015 until Friday 27th February, or until completion of the works within this period.

Planning (Listed Buildings & Conservation Areas) Act 1990 Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2010 - Article 13

APPLICATION(S) FOR PLANNING PERMISSION

Application No: 2015/0088/FUL Erection of detached dwelling (amendment to previously approved to include side dormer window) at Land Between 1 And 5, The Gravel, Mere Brow, Tarleton.
The proposed development affects a right of way to which Part III of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 applies.
Application No: 2015/0120/WL3 Reserved Matters - Erection of 11 industrial units B1 and B8 usage (including details of appearance, landscaping, layout and scale) at 18 - 24 Gorsey Place, Skelmersdale.

APPLICATION(S) AFFECTING A CONSERVATION AREA / LISTED BUILDING

Application No: 2015/0114/COU Change of use from Class A1 to mixed use of Class A1 and A3 including outside seating area and associated works at 10 Moor Street, Ormskirk.
Application No: 2015/0119/FUL* Replacement of timber windows to front, and rear of property at 25 Briars Brook, Lathom.
The applications are available for viewing on the Council's web site www.westlancs.gov.uk/planning. Alternatively, the application can be viewed during normal office hours at 52 Derby Street, Ormskirk and at 1st Floor, The Concourse, Skelmersdale. If you wish to comment on the proposal you can do so via the Council's web site, by e.mail to plan.apps@westlancs.gov.uk or in writing to the Planning Division, 52 Derby Street, Ormskirk, but these must be received within 21 days of the date of this notice quoting the application no. Any comments made will be available for public inspection.
* Householder Applications
In the event of an appeal against a refusal of planning permission, which is to be dealt with on the basis of representations in writing, any comments made will be sent to the Secretary of State, and there will be no further opportunity to comment.

The Skoda Superb is a luxury car for all of us

Life On Cars
DAVID SIMISTER
www.lifeoncars.blogspot.com

IT MUST be hard being a member of the one per cent.

Not only do you and your colleagues get to chat about Davos every year about how much more money you have than the rest of the globe, but you've got car makers catering for your every whim and desire.

Just last week, for instance, one of the world's biggest car makers launched a limousine perfect for you to stretch your legs while plotting world domination. In the back, there's 157mm of legroom – more than twice the amount any of its rivals offer – and it's got more room for your head and elbows too.

The air conditioning system is split into three different zones across the car, and if that's not enough you can get an electrically–operated, tilting panoramic sunroof as an optional extra. If it gets cold, the windscreen AND the windscreen washer jets are heated to make sure your chauffeur never gets a frosty reception, and he'll never need fidget with a boot lid because that's electrically operated too.

You'll have to agree this is a fine compliment of luxuries, and that's before I introduce you to the little umbrellas hidden in each of the rear doors so you never get wet when you go shopping.

The new Skoda Superb is one of the quiet heroes of the motoring world because it's a luxury car the 99 per cent can enjoy owning. Unlike the Hyundai Genesis I mentioned the other week, it's not attempting to march in on BMW and Mercedes territory with a similarly–priced offering. Nope, the Superb's party trick is giving you all the important things you'd want in a luxury car – first class legroom and some gadgets to play with – for a fraction of the price.

The New Skoda Superb has all the same luxuries as a Mercedes–Maybach

It's a pity its astonishing amounts of legroom, boot space and value for money means you're most likely to experience the Superb when you get a ride home with your mates in one on a Friday night.

The Superb is offering up a lot of motor for the money. It's Learjet luxury for EasyJet earnings.

Volkswagen has focused on making the engines in its people carrier more efficient.

New Sharan boasts better fuel efficiency

Report by David Simister

VOLKSWAGEN has treated its Sharan to new, more fuel–efficient engines as part of a series of updates.

The seven–seater people carrier will be given a range of VW's new TSI petrol and TDI diesel powerplants, all of which are 15% more fuel efficient. The interior's also been updated, and has a new centre console which has been designed to work with the latest smartphones.

It will be available to order from this April, with the first models due to appear here later this summer.

School earns bronze award

St James pupils with their School Games Mark Bronze Award

ST JAMES Catholic Primary School in Skelmersdale has been presented with the Sainsbury's School Games Mark Bronze Award for "their commitment, engagement and delivery of competitive school sport."

The school in Ashurst Road offers pupils a wide range of opportunities with a number of sports clubs.

They also take part in a number of competitions throughout the year including basketball, football, athletics, swimming galas, tag rugby and cross country.

Linnets fans' group end financial backing for club over dispute with owner

Keith Forshaw added: "I have watched Burscough for 50 years and given up countless hours to help raise more than £50,000 to help fund the club.

"BISA wouldn't be in a position to make these financial donations without the fantastic support of the community, especially members of our Linnet Line Lottery.

"As custodians of these funds BISA feel it is morally wrong to finance the club with community money with loyal supporters being treated this way." The pair also raised concerns that local business advertising boards have been removed at the grounds and said that the supporters' club shop was given 21 days' notice to close.

Mr Forshaw added: "Mr Gilchrist has shown no gratitude for the financial support this community has given Burscough FC.

"Victoria Park was paid for by the people of the village and I was always led to believe a covenant was in place stating it could only be used for recreational purposes and safeguarded by trustees.

"How can a piece of land be sold when no individual or persons own it? This should be a concern for everyone."

Club chairman, Mike Swift, told the Champion: "I am not prepared to comment on individuals and I am not going to discuss the behaviours of individuals.

"Burscough FC is not going to do its business through the columns of your newspaper.

"We are looking forward to the next Burscough Parish Council meeting and look forward to developing Victoria Park."

• After no match last weekend Burscough are back in action on Saturday with a league game away to Brighouse Town with a 3pm kick off.

Honours even after classic encounter

Skelmersdale United 1
King's Lynn Town 1

SOMETIMES you don't need lots of goals to bring a great game and the crowd at Stormy Corner were treated to a magnificent encounter, writes Neil Leatherbarrow.

Two teams had attacking endeavour from start to finish, one world class goal, another very good one, a save from each goalkeeper that would make Gordon Banks proud, and the result in doubt until the very last kick.

All finished off by two smiling managers who patted each other on the back and headed off for a post–match pint together.

Ninety seconds later came the goal of the game. A throw–in and an exchange of headers saw the ball drop to Lynn's Sam Mulready. As the ball sat up for him he lashed a dipping shot from 30 yards over goalkeeper Steve James and into the net.

The visitors almost made it two when Peter Winn won the ball on the halfway line and when 25 yards from goal, hit a vicious swirling left–footer that somehow James got his finger–tips to and turned the ball onto his crossbar. Pacy youngster Ben Tollitt was causing the Lynn defence a problems and a cultured 40 yard chip from Valtar Fernandes gave Mitchley a chance but his volley went over the crossbar.

Shortly before half–time Street made his best save of the half to palm a Kenny Strickland shot wide.

The game sprung to life again on the hour mark when James saved a low shot from Winn, then down the other end Scott Bakkor was fractionally beaten to the ball by Street.

Two minutes later a Shaun Holden cross from the line was met by a textbook overhead volley by Mitchley. Street flung himself to his right and the save was breathtaking.

Later on Tollitt drilled another shot wide before King's Lynn's Ross Watson fired across the face of goal.

By the end, two tired teams had done plenty to justify a hard earned point. The only losers were those who didn't go to the match.

Lawson looking to build on away record

Skelmersdale United manager Tommy Lawson takes his team on a trip down to Leicestershire on Saturday, when Skelmersdale have only a second ever fixture at Barwell.

Lawson's team have the best win away record in the Evo–Stik Premier Division and will be looking for all three points in their hunt for promotion, writes Neil Leatherbarrow. Barwell sit in the tenth position in the table 15 points behind Skelmersdale but have a decent home record, winning nine out of 16 homes games. They also won at Skelmersdale earlier in the season, but the architect of that victory a huge centre–forward called Luke Barlone has since left Barwell, so the Skem defence will not have him to contend with.

Midfielder Tom Ince's season is probably over as the knee injury he picked up at Stamford in October has not responded to physiotherapy since a cartledge operation and he may need further surgery.

Goalkeeper Martin Fearon will not be back until at least March, so the loan of Preston North End keeper Steve James for has been extended another month.
